

*From the Academic Division
Gospel Music Workshop of America, Inc.
Dean Charles Reese*

Special Academic Program Opportunities for GMWA Members!

Coming July 2022

- The On-Line Learning Experience (aka eLearning)

The program allows members of GMWA and those who are not able to attend the national meeting for various reasons, an opportunity to experience the curriculum offered in selected courses. Program is the same time as the national July convention.

Dr. Camilla Horne, Program Coordinator

- The Distance Learning Concept

The Academic Division realizes the need for continuing education for its enrolled membership. Students will be able to enroll for selected courses throughout the year.

Dr. Camilla Horne, Program Coordinator

- The GMWA Certification Program

The Academic Division offers an academic program in sacred music that leads to leadership roles within the African-American, Euro-American, Caribbean, Bahamian & Asian music styles. The Program can take several years to complete.

Dr. Herbert Jones, Program Coordinator

- The Internship Program

The GMWA Internship Program comes under the shelter of the Academic Division. It is a direct response to the growing needs of the Gospel Music Workshop of America in continuing to provide a viable and legitimate means of exposure for the growth, program operations and operational developments in helping to strengthen the operational workings of the organization. Corporations and Institutions of Higher Learning are involved in the program.

Dr. Glenn Nixon, Program Coordinator

- GMWA New Member Orientation

The GMWA Administration requests all new persons in the organization to become familiar with the different divisions, auxiliaries, general programming, the Board of Directors, Administrative Staff, registration costs, performance fees, available music song books costs, all of the major services available to members and other persons attending convention sessions. A valuable resource the GMWA History Book is available in the Academic Book Store.

Mr. Alvin Burks, Certified Librarian, Orientation Team Leader

More information forthcoming!